

Number the Stars Final Project Options

Scrapbook of the Town Of Gilliji – Create a visual scrapbook with "photographs," drawings, captions, and descriptions of daily life in hiding. Must include 6 pages in addition to the cover.

Righteous Among the Nations – Research others who helped hide and protect Jewish people during the Holocaust like the Johansen family in this novel. Create a poster about 3 people with their picture and add 2 paragraphs in your own words of each person's story under each picture.

Timeline of World War II Events – Create an interactive timeline poster showing key events of WWII and how they relate to Annemarie's experiences. Must include at least 5 events with one original paragraph explanation in your own words of each event.

Video Diary as Annemarie – Record short video diary entries as Annemarie, expressing her emotions and experiences from the novel. You may upload these videos to google slides. Must include at least 5 video diary entries that are at least 60 seconds long.

Modern-Day Refugee Stories – Research modern refugees or individuals forced into hiding due to persecution, drawing parallels to the people that Annemarie and her family help save in the story. Create a poster board that includes pictures and paragraphs (in your own words) of the information that you research. Include who they are, who/what they are running/hiding from, and how they escape.

Refugee Go-Bag Guidebook – Create an illustrated guidebook for a refugee. Include advice on rationing food, coping emotionally, and what to pack. Must include at least 6 pages including the cover.

Comic Strip of Key Moments – Illustrate Annemarie's journey in a comic strip format, showing her emotions, notable experiences, and character growth. Your comic strip must include at least 5 boxes with a paragraph explanation of each scene.

Annemarie's Experiences Pop-Up Book – Create a 3D pop-up book that brings important scenes from Annemarie's story to life. Must include at least 5 pages of pictures and text in addition to the cover.
